

Announcing

THIRTY-ONE TONE SINGING CAMP

2nd Edition: New York NY (Upper East Side)

JULY 15-19, 2008

Learn to sing in 31 equal tones per octave, a microtonal tuning system that is close to meantone tunings used centuries ago and also capable of stunning new harmonies.

- Tuesday 8-10 PM: Experiential introduction to 31 tones per octave.
- Wednesday 8-10 PM: Microtonal choir music: Paul Rapoport's "Songs of Fruits and Vegetables"
- Thursday 8-10 PM: Theory and composing with help from Queens College's Terpstra Generalized Keyboard
- Friday 8-10 PM: Read composed sketches and a Gesualdo madrigal.
- Saturday 1-5 PM: Bring your instrument! Attempt, show and tell, jam session, discussion.

All ages & voices welcome. Can be attended in part or in full.

Knowledge of common music notation required for Tues/Thurs/Fri sessions.

RSVP / further info: Jacob Barton • udderbot@gmail.com • (281-755-2260)